Game CHVNGESS

Grace Cards
Revised Edition

Grace Cards

Revised Edition

The Power of Grace at Your Fingertips
Declare grace over challenging situations with this handy set of cards. Share this powerful tool for growing grace with others! An effective teaching tool together with the GameChangers and LifeChangers manuals.

Grace can never be separated from primary purpose. Primary purpose is that I should be made in the image of God.

Grace cannot be separated from God's Glory.

Grace overwhelms me; it overwhelms everything in its path, it covers a multitude of sins, and cannot be separated from love.

Grace is the empowering Presence of God that enables me to become the person that God sees every time He looks at me.

Grace is an aspect of God's nature that is so powerful it elevates everyone who walks in it.

Grace lifts me up.
It is a place in which I stand.
It is a lifestyle that I practice.

Grace is designed to overwhelm me thoroughly.

Grace is so wonderful that it humbles me and causes me to believe like a much-loved child.

When the enemy is radically opposing me, frace only needs to be adequate to deal with him.

If Grace is designed to overwhelm me, then it is designed to overwhelm everything that opposes me.

Grace is more powerful than anger.

Anger starts Grace a fight, but Grace disarms and strips the enemy.

Grace takes all the sting out of conflicts.

Grace keeps me well content when insulted.

Grace makes me content when I am opposed.

Grace is rich, it is sufficient; it is always going to be more than I need.

Grace carries me through everything.

Grace is so enormous, so powerful, so brilliant, it obliterates all the plans of the enemy.

Grace causes me to overcome and to rise up.

Grace causes me to see things about God I did not see before.

Grace causes me to have contentment in my heart towards life.

Grace is a barrier against the enemy.

G There is a power in Grace that produces maturity even in my moments of weakness.

Grace means that I cannot lose.
I cannot fail to grow in times of enemy opposition.

Grace empowers me to stand and know God's love in an overpowering way.

Grace is the catalyst for confidence and boldness.

Grace and Majesty cannot be separated. In a fight with the enemy, Grace wins.

Game The Majesty in Grace overshadows every accusation of the enemy.

Grace wipes out my mistakes and overshadows shame and condemnation.

Grace connects people to loving kindness.

Grace causes the opinions of others to wash off of me because Grace is condemnation proof.

Grace dominates everything!

Grace creates the opposite of what legalism intends.

Grace gives me power, and power increases Grace.

God is able to make all Grace abound to me.

Grace is more than enough to ward off the enemy.

Grace makes me rich in His Presence and in the fullness of who God is.

Grace takes me into a high place and shows me who I am.

Grace is my place of safety in Jesus.

Grace is bigger than logic and reason and is more powerful than my intellect.

In every circumstance frace can change a difficulty into a possibility.

Grace is a territory that is always under my feet.

is so overpowering, so compelling, that it makes me invincible.

Grace is so astonishing and amazing that nothing can stand against it.

Focusing on the negative frustrates the frace of God.

Grace opens me to the astonishing future that belongs to me in Christ.

Grace lifts me up.
It is an elevator, not stairs!

Grace is much more than a blessing that I can receive in moments of need. It is a place in which I stand.

In Grace no one is safe from the Kindness of God.

Grace and God's glory cannot be separated.

As I stand in Grace, the empowering Presence of God rises up and occupies my heart making me invincible.

Grace takes all the weight off my life and leaves me free.

Grace is His Kindness lavished upon me.

Grace empowers me to reign in difficult situations in His Majesty.

The beauty of Grace changes me from the inside out.